The Royal Wedding by Sara

Prince Harry and Meghan Markle got married on Saturday, May 19, 2018. Meghan had a really pretty dress and a really pretty wedding veil. Some people said speeches. The queen was at the wedding. All of the ladies had to wear hats. Lots of people around the world watched the wedding.

My class celebrated the royal wedding. We had tea. We watched the royal wedding. We wore hats. I learned to never turn your back at the queen. I had to curtsy and say “your majesty.” You had to stand when the queen was standing.

The soldiers with marine outfits celebrate Memorial Day. They march in the parade. Sometimes they go to cookouts and barbecues. My family is having a cookout on Memorial Day. My mom is going to grill ribs, chicken, hot dogs, and barbecue beans.

Allan Knight comes around for music. Last time when we had science, we learned about bones. It was hard to keep going on math because of break. Dr. G mixed up with the bones. I enjoyed it.

I will still be singing in the choir. I keep doctor's and dentist's appointments. And I will get my hair cut and be with friends. Those are my plans.
